COWARDS,CROOKS AND WARRIORS by J. C. De Ladurantey.

A Howard Hamilton Ride-Along.

Family man and police officer Howard Hamilton happily works the quiet night shift in the Orchard Hills community of California. One evening, he is in a situation where he might have used his firearm but froze, which is when he starts to question his qualifications as a Police Officer. Then, the unthinkable happens: a rookie officer is killed.

When the department struggles with their first on-duty death in ten years, the new chief transfers HH to day watch-where the bad luck really begins. Within days, another officer has a heart attack. Then, HH's good friend accidentally kills an officer while hunting. HH becomes unwittingly embroiled in a drug-dealing cop's arrest. The OHPD is in a state of duress!

While the department swirls in the windstorm of deaths, HH discovers the body of Ginny, sister to the largest business owner in town. She has been brutally slain in a ritualistic murder, which brings in the LAPD's occult expert. HH wants nothing more than to return to the usual night shift and his family, but first, he has to work with his nemesis to unravel a horrendous crime in a city once lauded for its peace and quiet.

AVAILABLE TIME by J. C. De Ladurantey.

A Howard Hamilton Ride-Along.

The new media jaded the public's views of law enforcement across the country. Granted, police work is not always pretty, but with over 200,000 law enforcement officers having an average of ten contacts per day (and many with more), the views that are being presented are not fair and balanced. That is not law enforcement in the majority of communities. Readers can still get excited about a cop thriller and the suspense of cases without being dragged into the abyss of brutality, racism and antagonism or even excessive force.

INSIDE by J.C. De Ladurantey.

A Howard Hamilton Ride-Along.

Policing the streets is less precarious than the intrigue and drama behind the balusters and bulletproof glass of a police station. The interaction with the public can be the escape our men and women in blue need to avoid the administrative bureaucracy that controls their actions and often dictates what they can and cannot do. Orchard Hill PD is not immune to the intrigue and changes that drive today's police departments. There are two things' police officers' hate. First is the way things are. The second is changing the way things are. Some try to hide on the graveyard or night shift to get away from the inside workings of a PD, but sooner or later, it catches up to everyone, even Detective Howard Hamilton.

What occurs outside does not necessarily translate to what goes on INSIDE. Ride along with Detective Howard Hamilton as he unravels a series of mysteries INSIDE.

• Was Detective Hamilton responsible for his Chief losing his job?

• Why are his coworkers and family pushing him into a relationship he may not be ready for?

• Are vice crimes victimless?

• Are Hamilton's computer analytical skills up to the challenge of complex investigations?

• Detective Hamilton and his team are propelled from a simple investigation into an international drug and human smuggling cartel that takes cooperation at the Regional, State, and Federal levels.

• See how this intrigue unravels with a front-row seat in another Howard Hamilton Ride-Along.

Awarded 5 Stars By The Editor At Book Marketing Global Network. Realistic Depiction Of Life In A Police Department.

Author J.C. De Ladurantey uses his forty plus years of law enforcement experience and street savvy to bring his readers into his ‘A Howard Hamilton Ride-Along’ series. ‘INSIDE’ brings the reader into the inner sanctorum of today’s law enforcement. Ride along with Officer Howard Hamilton of Orchard Hill PD and discover for yourself the mysteries that surround our brave men and women in blue, the administrative bureaucracy that controls every aspect of law enforcement, and how this bureaucracy helps and/or harms our community.

This fictional, complex and intriguing story is told with insider knowledge and integrity. Officer Hamilton is learning everything he can about open-source intelligence. He is “developing the skill to investigate hacking cases, data removal, high-tech criminal investigations, online child solicitation, abduction, kidnapping, and cold case homicides - anything that used technology. He is in his element as he expanded into understanding terrorist databases and other high-level intrusions into a world he never had known existed.”

The characters reflect our brave men and women in blue doing their jobs. The situations portrayed on the clock are intense. Life and death split second decisions are made. The scrutiny and magnification of law enforcement's actions and imperfections are intensified in the media, courtrooms and in public perceptions. Due to the realistic depiction of life in a police department, significant profanity and explicit sexual content, I recommend this book for ages 16 and up.

I especially enjoyed the conversations and comradery within the work environment. I found the everyday home and family drama made the characters very relatable. The life within the community shared brought a sense of humanity, along with the daily struggle between good and evil.

Let me bring you into the story: "Hamilton could not concentrate on what was in front of him. He flashed back eight years when his life with Clare and the kids was so simple. He patrolled a city with very little violent crime, almost no major drug problem other than weed in the high schools, and never the contentious issues he has been involved in since being assigned to Narcotics and Vice. Chaos seemed to reign once outside the city limits of Orchard Hill. Inside Orchard Hill was just fantasy land now. Do we need to go out of the city to protect our city, or do we patrol the perimeter to ensure evil doesn't enter?"

Our law enforcement is tasked with keeping communities safe. All they ask in return, acknowledgment of the complexities of the job, respect for each officer's commitment to serve, and the ability to return home to their family at the end of their shift.

I invite you to read 'A Howard Hamilton Ride-Along' crime suspense mystery thriller series 'COWARDS, CROOKS AND WARRIORS', 'TWENTY-THREE MINUTES', 'AVAILABLE TIME' and 'INSIDE'.

About The Author: His latest book is AVAILABLE TIME - A Howard Hamilton Ride-Along. It is the third in the Howard Hamilton series so look for it in early 2021!

J.C. De Ladurantey, with over forty (yes 40!) years of law enforcement experience at all levels, combines street savvy with real police department intrigue in his crime writing novel, COWARDS, CROOKS, AND WARRIORS. Now his latest book: TWENTY-THREE MINUTES, is available on Amazon and continues the ride-along with Officer Howard Hamilton of Orchard Hill PD.

Under his radio name, "Joe D, The Doctor of Doo Wop", he also hosts a radio show "MAKING YOUR MEMORIES, the music, and artists of the 1950s and early 60's on FM 88.5 and HD-2 on KSBR in Los Angeles and Orange County. He still does not know what he wants to be when he grows up.

He has gone from writing textbooks, publishing his doctoral dissertation (ugh!) to hanging out with his cop friends and musical artists who made the 1950's and early 60's the 1950's and early 60's.

His efforts include narration of his two books for Audible, iTunes, and Amazon. He also narrates other crime/mystery novelists such as Dallas Gorham and Kip Meyerhoff. There are several other authors waiting in the pipeline. The fun never stops!

From COWARDS, CROOKS, AND WARRIORS to his Doo-Wop book he is launching a sequel to CCW, "TWENTY-THREE MINUTES". Thanks for letting him live the dream. Namaste.
