SUMMER CAMP

A PLAY FOR CHILDREN

INSPIRED BY JESUS

By: James Manthey

Summer Camp: A School Play or Activity by James Manthey

It's the 5th annual experience at the Salvation Marine Center, a state-of-the-art facility on Green Swamp's east side.

Green Swamp is a God-blessed place, presided over by the love of Jesus, where even God's creatures have a say in things.

This wonderful play is inspired by Jesus and offers great teaching opportunities for children.

About The Author: Jim Manthey makes his home in Green Bay, Wisconsin, with wife, Becca.

Colleges he has attended, among others, include: Northwestern College (BA Liberal Arts, Watertown, Wisconsin, 1984); University of Wisconsin-Madison (MA Classics, 1989), and Rutgers University (MA Classics, New Brunswick, New Jersey, 1995).

Previous publications include: A Genesis Commentary (X Libris Publications, 2009) and Handbook of the Old Testament Prophets: Their Connection to New Testament Prophecy; Their Relevance Today, Tate Publishing, 2016 (soon to be re-published with Pen It! Publications).

Another book is in progress, an historical fiction novel set in the 1960-1970's about two American servicemen serving in Italy, and how they handle challenges to their Christian faith.

To Jesus Christ, (who died and rose again and who is returning to reclaim his faithful followers), the glory! Amen.
