

Growing Up With Granny by Lora Goff

Deuteronomy 6:7 "You shall teach them (His Words) diligently to your children."

I was blessed to have parents who took me to Sunday School and Church. My memories of that time are vivid. Like a sponge, I soaked up the music and words from the Bible that have sustained me through life. I am thankful for the teachers who have been dedicated to teaching children the love of God and His word.

"Growing Up With Granny" is a portrayal of what life was like when Granny was young; how God worked in her life. They will see, though our lives change from one generation to another, God never changes and His word is true. The same truths of the Bible that helped Granny will help them. Humorous and educational stories will help children learn from Granny's mistakes and also learn how her work and play was different, yet similar to theirs.
