

The Living Series: Living Beyond The Fringe by Sally Ann Haight Marx

This is your moment when everything can change....

Are you living on the outside of God's Love, wondering why others seem to have the inside track to Him? Or perhaps you have walked with God your entire life and yet something is missing. Have you wondered if your life is meant for more? You, my friend, were never meant to live on the outer edges of His amazing love.

As a 30-year flight attendant, I have seen a million faces. And when I have looked deeply into eyes like yours, I have seen hearts desiring more and so many lives seeking to leave:

- An imprint
- A memory
- A legacy

His transforming love will bring your life full circle:

- When You Seek Him In His Word
- When You Practice Speaking With Him

It is then you will begin to recognize the calming voice of the Holy Spirit. He will gently bring you closer than you ever dreamed possible.

Come join me on this journey as I share encouragement through scripture and true life-giving short stories. Let's encounter His incredible Love and acceptance together. It is time!

Choose now to move 'Beyond the Fringe' and into YOUR true legacy.

"I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you; I will remove from you your heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh." Ezekiel 36:26.

Editorial Review:

"This is a book for anyone who feels that disconnect from God.

Included is a series of short relatable stories that will encourage you in ways you may not have dreamed possible.

You are taken on your own journey and at your own pace.

The end of each chapter, leaves you in a place of an open-ended conversation with your Heavenly Father.

The author begins the prayer, but you get to finish it every time.

There is a significant point in this book and it is different for each person, it is a particular place where you feel the shifting of your legacy.

And it is good."

Unfortunately, so many of us live our entire lives just outside the fullness He promises. We do not understand that we actually have a compassionate Father just waiting to love on us throughout this journey called life. It is my prayer, that our Father will use my love of words to encourage you to cross over from fringe living to a fullness of life you may never have dreamed possible.

After all, "It was He who came, to bring us life, that we may have it to the full." (John 10:10) And It is because of His promises kept that hope overflowing will be renewed in you!

Don't give up, life is waiting to be really lived, just beyond the fringe! Welcome aboard!"

About The Author: Author Sally Ann (Haught) Marx grew up on a farm in rural Pennsylvania in a large, close-knit family. For as long as she can remember, she has had a love of words and a desire to encourage others.

Her desire to follow God, led her to a Christian University, where she obtained her Bachelor of Science in Biblical Studies and Communication. Eventually settling into Kentucky with her amazing and supportive husband, they have loved and rescued several kitties over the years. They have one other rescue. His name is Benji and he radiates love and joy everywhere he goes. Their family is furry, and they live gratefully!

Sally Ann has been a flight attendant for close to 30 years. It has allowed her to travel the world and to see amazing places. Although she is well traveled, it is the faces and the stories of the people she meets that affect her the most. She has sensed and witnessed too many people who are living on the fringe of God's love.

"Everywhere I go, I see that smiling is still the universal language.

A willingness to love others in truth creates a bridge over many wounded hearts. It has become increasingly apparent that laying deep within every human is a little child desperately desiring to feel safe and loved.

We are each beautiful creations who long to leave our mark in the world. When we finally learn how to live life in its fullness, we will then leave a legacy marked with His goodness.
