
Justice For Lindsey by Christina Siwik

Sophie London-Evin Foster Mysteries Book One.

Carron Maitland and Jake Brennan would have never met in another time and another place.

Carron had it all. The heiress to a fortune had built her own successful business from the ground up. Soon her world comes crashing down and secrets from the past threaten her very existence.

Jake, a former cop turned successful mystery writer, sets out to write a true-crime novel and in the process solve a twenty-five-year-old murder.

Now Carron and Jake are brought together and combine their talents and resources to bring closure to the past.

He Never Said Good-Bye & Deception In The Moonlight by Christina Siwik

Sophie London-Evin Foster Mysteries Book Two.

Sophie London sets out to prove her husband, William, was murdered and not just killed in a tragic auto accident. The more Sophie and private investigator, Evin Foster, delve into the events surrounding William's death, the more unanswered questions surface. Was it an accident or murder?

Sophie London and Evin Foster team up again. This time it is to prove the innocence of a young man accused of murdering his young wife. They go undercover at the popular resort, Sunset Hills, to find the evidence they need. It sounds like the young woman is not the only one who has met a suspicious death at the resort. Can Sophie and Evin find the real killer before it is too late?

I think this book is Ms. Siwik's best yet. Sophie and Evin Foster are at it again, solving mysteries and crimes even though they don't intend to get involved.
The first story was my favorite of the two, but if you're a fan of the game CLUE, you'll love the second story just as much as the first. Can't wait to see what the Fosters are up to next!
