Whether you believe in psychic phenomena, UFOs, past lives or not this book is a very entertaining read. I personally know Kathy and her talents go way beyond what is written in this book. She is extremely intuitive and has a keen sense about people's energy field which lets her zero in on when a person has experienced trauma and what in their lives still needs to be healed. This is an easy and entertaining read about her journey into spiritualism and the experiences that unfolded for her along the way. Highly recommend!

Review by Stephen E. Chiarello, M.D.: 5.0 out of 5 Stars. An inspirational woman! I was fascinated by Kathy's experiences as she followed the path to developing her gifts. Her true talent is her desire to unselfishly help people to attain healing and peace. Her journey was both amazing and inspiring. I admire her dedication in pursuing her spirituality. Review by Rachel W.: 5.0 out of 5 Stars. Beautiful memoir of spiritual awakening. Most of us that have had spiritual experiences do not want to talk about them in fear we'll be labeled a loon. When really, we are riding the front edge of the curve. I liked a lot of aspects about Kathy Morley's book but my favorite part is how intimately and honestly, she takes us through her journey. She is lighting a candle of truth with a laser focus on her awakening process- the happy, the sad, the bizarre and the magical. Reading this book will empower you to find your own authentic path.

Review by Ann Marie: 5.0 out of 5 Stars: A road to spiritual discovery. Kathy's journey to discovering her truly authentic gifts is a road map to spiritual awakening that truly leads the reader down her path. It encourages the reader to take steps to open oneself to similar possibilities. While the stories she tells are intriguing, I found the channeling messages revealed to be a place where I will reflect for many years to come. It is no small thing to discover the meaning of THE EGO, THE CREATOR, AUTHENTICITY, PRESENCE, & PEACE. These were profound for me and hopefully for you.

Message From Author: I have been teaching meditation and metaphysics for over 25 years. When Transcendental Meditation was introduced in the U.S. in the seventies, I trained with the Maharishi Yogi and fell in love with the serenity and peace I experienced. This deepened my conviction that there must be more to life than what we encounter through our five senses.

I have taught meditation to nursing and dental hygiene students preparing for their certifications. Surveys of the students showed that they believed meditation helped them to quell anxiety and improve their grades.

Now I work as a multi-dimensional healer, utilizing my intuitive and empathic abilities as well as my training in hypnosis, Reiki, and Emotional Freedom Technique to pinpoint when energy blockages occurred in one's life and work to release them to facilitate healing. My book, The Gift: Finding the extraordinary in everyday living helps people understand about energy beyond the physical.

I enjoy writing about life writ large, the wondrous things many of us take for granted, sharing my experiences for people to relate to their own lives. I am an avid reader of non-fiction, science, health, nutrition everything that can help me live my best life.

About The Author: Kathy is a gifted healer who uses her intuitive and empathic abilities as well as her training to pinpoint when energy blockages occurred and works to release them to facilitate healing. According to what is needed she may align chakras, use EFT, Hypnotherapy, Reiki, emotion codes or a combination thereof. Kathy has a deep interest in the integration of spiritual and physical healing.

Services: Kathy uses her intuitive abilities to assist in healing on all levels. She may employ techniques such as hypnosis, emotional freedom technique, Reiki, as well as intuiting what age an energy disruption occurred in order to release it. She lectures and presents workshops on metaphysics including, Accessing Soul Memory, Forgiveness: The Key to Peace, The Law of Attraction, The Power of Intention, Discovering and Deepening Your Intuition.

Kathy is available for public speaking events as well as private meditation groups. She holds meditation classes which help induce relaxation, improve concentration, and replenish energy. Participants say they experience an inner calm through awareness of breath, sound, and guided imagery.
