

Listen To Me: How My Down Syndrome Brother Saved My Life by Lynne Podrat.

Author Lynne Podrat Is A Proud Recipient Of Gold Award From Literary Titans.

This memoir was written to honor my youngest brother's influence over my life, the good, the bad, and the ugly, of living with a Down Syndrome sibling. It tells the story of the children of my family, despite our parents' frailties, remaining committed to each other through life's many changes and separations. Who I am today is directly related to who I needed to become.

Awarded 5 Stars By The Editor At Book Marketing Global Network. I am convinced that Angels walk among us here on earth by God's Design. 'Listen To Me' is an inspirational story of at least two of these angels. Some are born angels, other become an angel while on their life journey.

'Listen To Me' Won 'Gold From The National Association Of Nonfiction Authors'.

Bruce (Brucie), a child born with Down Syndrome is one of God's Angels here on earth and Lynne Podrat (Brucie's sister) is another of God's Angels, put here to help others by sharing her heart felt, honest memoir and giving guidance to those listen, learn, change course and find their true calling in life.

I experienced many emotions while reading 'Listen To Me'. Reading Author Lynne Podrat's talk with God at the end of this book caused a shiver to go through me. In her sincere conversation with God, she realizes that Brucie was given to her as a gift. She embraced God's gift, and it changed the course of her life and everyone she has touched with this book.

Our society has come a long way to understanding and embracing those with Down Syndrome, due in part to true, inspiring stories like 'Listen To Me'. I encourage you to 'listen' and you read Lynne Podrat's story. You will come away with a new understanding and appreciation for those with Down Syndrome and their care givers. I am sure that Brucie, now an Angel in heaven, is aware that we are all 'Listening'.

Lynne's second book, "My Sister Want An Elephant has won 'Gold From Literary Titans'. Based on a true story. "Told from the viewpoint of eleven-year-old Randy, the story is sure to be a hit with young readers".

My Sister Wants an Elephant by Lynne Podrat.

Book Received Gold Award From Literary Titans.

Randy's sister wants a WHAT?!? And his Mom isn't flat-out saying no?!

My Sister Wants an Elephant is the true story of two siblings who team up together to convince their mother to let them own a couple of wild animals as pets, and a mother who just might be persuaded.

Full of humor and fun, this book is a good lesson in not giving up on your dreams, no matter how truly wild they may be!

About The Author: Lynne Podrat graduated from the Pennsylvania State University and then spent fifteen years in the Fashion Industry as an Assistant Buyer and Department Manager with Bloomingdales Department Store before returning to school to receive her educational degrees from Arcadia University and Gynedd Mercy. A retired educator and Administrator from the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania School District, she taught English, literature, composition, and history in elementary and secondary schools. She has secretly been a writer and poet her whole life but has only recently chosen to share those talents with the world. Lynne now lives with her husband in Palm Beach Gardens, Florida, spending winters dragon boating and summers hiking the Rockies in Vail, Colorado where her heart sings.

Lynne is the proud recipient of a Gold Award for both books, Gold from the National Association of Nonfiction Authors for Listen to Me and Gold from Literary Titans for My Sister Want an Elephant.
